If we really want to know God and enter into a relationship with Him we have to go before Him with open hearts, hiding nothing, fearing nothing: God is Good and He is Gracious, His Love for us is PERFECT... beyond all human understanding.

Open Doors

I used to be afraid of God,
Afraid that He might see
The many pains within my heart
As sins between Him and me;
But then He made me realize
It was not His will to judge,
But that He'd rather heal with love,
Any hidden hurt or grudge,
And as I slowly yielded
Those secret parts of me,
I found that He could heal them all,
And inside – I was free!
